BIG FIRE NEAR WESTERLY

Lantern Upset, and F. W. Babcock's Barn, Cattle and Hay were Burned-Fartially Insured

The large barn belonging to F. W. Babcock on his farm on the Watch Hill road was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. Nineteen cows, four horses, a large quantity of hay and grain and farming implements were burned. The fire was caused by an overturned lantern. A boy who is employed about the farm went into the hay loft to throw some hay down to the cows. It was dark and the boy carried a lantern, which in some way was overturned. The oil ran out and set the hay on fire. The boy tried to put the fire out, but the whole loft was quickly ablaze. He was alone at the time and when he saw the fire was beyond his control he turned his attention to the stock of cattle, with the result that four or five of the cows were saved, but beyond that he and the crowd of neighbors who had arrived by this time could do nothing, as the barn was fir ruins. Attention was then turned to Mr. Babcock's house, which was thoroughly wet down by garden hose and palis of water. Al-though near the barn it was saved. The fire was clearly seen in Westerly, though near the barn it was saved. The fire was clearly seen in Westerly, two miles away. Mr. Babcock runs a milk route and the fire will mean a big oss for him. The barn was partially

Large crowds from Westerly and learby towns visited the site of the uins Sunday.

The estimated loss is $6,000 and the and the estimated loss is $6,000 and the only insurance Mr. Babcock had was $1,000 on the building and $1,500 on the contents. During Sunday hundreds visited the premises, simply to witness the smoldering ruins and see the remains of the ill fated livestock. It was the most destructive farm fire Westerly has known for many years.

Theodore L. Gardiner, D. D., editor of The Sabbath Recorder, writes editorially of a recent visit to Westerly in this style: "As I stood in the pulpit of the Pawcatuck church last Sabbath I was most forcibly impressed with the changes that have come to the audience there since first I knew it. Thirty-five years ago last July, fresh from school at Alfred, I went to supply the pulpit of that church while Pastor George E. Tomlinson was in Europe. The four months' stay there has always been remembered with pleasure and the picture of the congregation that then filled the house will never be forgotten. Here is a list of names as I recall them, and it is a surprise to see how many have passed away. Their faces were clear in memory as I was in the pulpit at Westerly recently.

"They were: Rev. George B. Utter, Deacon Nathan Langworthy, Deacon Nathan Langworthy, Deacon of the chief of the committee, has received invitation to dine at the Crown hatel as guest of the condition of the condition of

While Westerly may not be a leader in all things, it is believed that no place of its size can equal its record for the accidental burning of automobiles.
